This document is also available in French.

Whether you are currently settling an estate or planning to appoint an executor* in the future, the following checklist can help prepare you for the key tasks involved.

If you have questions about any of your duties or want more information about how you can get help from an RBC Royal Trust professional, please call 1-855-833-6511.

Task

Preliminary steps

- Locate the Will and review it for specific instructions concerning the funeral
- Assist with funeral arrangements if required
- Obtain multiple original copies of the proof-of-death certificate, as most organizations that you will deal with as executor require original documentation
- Probate the Will (if necessary)
- Review any marriage or civil union contracts, family law issues or dependant relief issues
- Pay probate taxes to the provincial government as determined
- Ensure the family's immediate financial needs can be met

Beneficiary relationship

- Communicate directly with the beneficiaries, gather information and set expectations regarding the distribution process
- Provide regular updates to the beneficiaries regarding the status of the administration
- Provide a copy of the estate summary document to those beneficiaries who are entitled to one

Safeguarding the estate assets

- Locate all of the deceased's assets (including any digital assets such as social media accounts and their associated passwords) and liabilities
- Notify banks and institutions where the deceased held accounts or had other dealings
- Open an estate account to deposit income and pay expenses, transferring any balances
- Cancel all credit card accounts. Complete documentation and arrange to transfer credit card rewards or other points (RBC Rewards, Aeroplan, Air Miles, Canadian Tire, etc.)
- Verify that adequate insurance is in place to protect assets
- Secure and take control of real property, including real estate and contents, and arrange for property management

Valuing the estate

- Locate all original investment certificates, stocks, bonds, property deeds, etc., in the deceased's personal files and safe deposit box
- Identify, value and record estate assets as they stood at the date of death
- Investigate all debts owned by the deceased
- Apply for and collect the Canada Pension Plan (CPP) death benefit
- Contact the deceased's employer or former employer regarding pension plans, retiree benefits and death benefits
- Apply for and collect life insurance and other insurance benefits
